

SIU EGYPT PROGRAM

May 21 – June 1, 2019

Day 1: Tues., May 21. Departure from St. Louis.

Day 2: Wed., May 22. Arrive in Cairo. Meet and be assisted by our correspondent and transfer to your 5-star hotel: Le Meridien Pyramids... Enjoy a moment of relaxation and recovery from your plane trip in the giant Jacuzzi and swimming pool of your hotel. Awesome sight of the Pyramids while having dinner!

Day 3: Thurs., May 23. Visit to SAKKARA PLATEAU, site of the Stepped Pyramid of King Djoser, “1st pyramid in history”. We marvel at the daily life of ancient Egyptians depicted in detail on the walls of their Mastabas. MASTABA OF MERYUKA. Lunch by the pool at Palm Club Restaurant followed by a trip to DAHSHUR to visit the Red and the Bent/Rhomboidal pyramids of King Snefru from the 4th Dynasty. Both plateaus will help to complete our understanding of the earliest stages of Old Kingdom “pyramid construction projects”.

Day 4: Fri., May 24. Visit to THE GIZA PLATEAU, including the interior of THE GREAT PYRAMID OF KHUFU where only few people are allowed to enter. The striking SOLAR BOAT and the famous SPHINX, dating back to almost five thousand years ago are definitely on our list. Free time for leisure at the hotel’s giant pool and jacuzzi.

Day 5: Sat., May 25. A trip through the ancient history of Egypt, an overview of the Old, Middle, and New Kingdoms -- in a visit to the perfectly extraordinary collection in THE EGYPTIAN MUSEUM IN CAIRO, including the fascinating treasures of KING TUTANKHAMON and the MUMMIES ROOMS.

THE PHARAONIC VILLAGE where the everyday life of the ancient Egyptians is brought back to life for you to watch.

We set off for Cairo airport for our one-hour flight to LUXOR in southern Egypt. Transfer to our 5-star resort: the Jolie Ville, set out on 24-acres of landscaped foliage, directly on the Nile.

Day 6: Sun., May 26. Visit to THE VALLEY OF THE KINGS including the special ticket to THE TOMB OF KING TUTANKHAMON, TOMBS OF SETI 1ST AND RAMSES VI; followed by a visit to THE VALLEY OF THE QUEENS. A reflection on the change of themes according to the mission to accomplish, through the iconography in both Valleys. Being a Pharaoh coincides with a particular journey in the under-world! TOMB OF NEFERTARI, the most beautiful tomb in Egypt.

Afternoon at leisure, enjoying relaxing and reflecting time by the hotel swimming pools.

Enjoy the abounding buffet dinner in Jolie Ville restaurant overlooking the Nile.

Day 7: Mon., May 27. Visit to the funerary temple of QUEEN HATSCHEPSUT at El-Deir el-Bahary: a distinguished female Pharaoh’s tomb with a unique architectural design. TEMPLE OF MEDINET HABOU, funerary temple of the Last Great Egyptian Pharaoh, RAMSES III.

We then visit the VALLEY OF NOBLES and the WORKMEN’S VILLAGE. The iconography in these various tombs helps us understand the roles played by Pharaoh, Prince, Noble, and Workman; and how in turn this helps us understand what the after-life meant to the Ancient Egyptians.

At twilight we visit LUXOR TEMPLE and walk through the famous Sacred Way lined by ram-headed sphinxes. Buffet dinner in Jolie Ville restaurant overlooking the Nile.

Day 8: Tues., May 28. Optional excursion: Hot-air-Balloon ride on the Nile at sunrise! Discover the largest temple in the world: KARNAK, unique with its gigantic “Hypostyle Hall,” witnessing the greatness of architecture in ancient Egypt.

We then marvel at the overwhelming collection of antiquities and Mummies in the LUXOR MUSEUM.

Transfer to board our luxurious 5-star Nile Cruise. Your floating hotel has lots of facilities onboard including a sundeck, swimming pool, lounge bar, restaurant, Jacuzzi, health club and massage parlour. This will be home for four days!

Lunch on board while beginning our sailing on the Nile. We go through the lock of Esna and rise up 18 feet before continue sailing on to Edfu. Tea Time on the sun deck.

Day 9: Wed., May 29. Visit the most complete temple of Egypt, the house of Horus the falcon headed god, at EDFU. After our visit, we return to the cruise to savour the moments while cruising up the Nile, watching the peaceful scenery of daily countryside life from “another time”.

Back on board, we participate in two hands-on activities of reconstructing the structure of the Great Pyramid to test theories of its construction, and we join together to raise a breakable obelisk to test other theories about ancient Egyptian technology. We do these activities on the deck of our cruise ship, as we gently sail the Nile.

At twilight we visit the double temple of KOM OMBO where Sobek, the crocodile, and Hareoris, the falcon, were worshiped.

Egyptian buffet dinner and local Galabeiah party on board.

Day 10: Thur., May 30. Visit to the pearl of Egypt temples: PHILAE, dedicated to goddess Isis. The location: an island on the Nile, at the gate to Nubia, is a brilliant cultural and political choice. We also visit the UNFINISHED OBELISK AT THE QUARRIES OF RED GRANITE as we explore how the huge blocks of granite were cut from the rock beds and transported north to Luxor and Giza.

Felucca ride (sail boat) on the Nile enjoying the picturesque scenery of Aswan.

Explore the Spices Market with its vivid colours and lights.

Day 11: Fri., May 31. Optional excursion to ABU SIMBEL, one of the wonders of Ancient Egypt. The gigantic two temples were cut in the rocks and are the accomplishment of one of Egypt’s greatest Pharaohs: Ramses II, and great wife: queen Nefertari.

Board a Jet flight to Cairo and transfer to our hotel for dinner and overnight.

Day 12: Sat., June 1. Transfer to Cairo airport for flight to Saint Louis.
